I am convinced that Christ is risen
I am persuaded to tell the world
Your Life and words are credible
Like nothing seen or heard
I can believe the inconceivable
I can imagine even more
It is hope that God have given me
Because the coming, of the Spirit of the Lord!
Hallelujah! Christ is risen! Hallelujah! Spirit! Lord!
Hallelujah! Christ is risen! Hallelujah! Spirit! Lord!
I take my comfort in the knowledge Your Spirit is setting free
Free to be who God intended, a heart, a mind that is at peace
I find Your wisdom for the moment and I have had Your healing
For Your Spirit lives within me, because the coming the coming of the Spirit!

Wild Abandon

Anne with Chris McDonald

Anne MacCallum: vocals

Kenny McWilliams: electric guitar, programming, keyboards

Don Russo: acoustic guitar

Jack Mandel: lead acoustic guitar

Chad Rochester: bass

Josh Kean: drums, percussion

Mistakes are guaranteed with wild abandon Wonder, mystery with wild abandon
Are you a fool in your pursuit of Christ?
With wild abandon...
Take Him at His word with wild abandon
Be misunderstood cause you live like him
Believing like a child with eyes wide open Curious, beyond fear and doubt
Almost anything with Him could happen Reaching out with all hope and Wild abandon, with wild abandon

He said, follow Me, follow Me
He said live this life as if You've Truly received the Kingdom like a child believe

"Mistakes are the guaranteed outcome of wild abandon. Mistakes are a sign of growth. That is why both Old and New Testaments are brimming over with people who made mistakes. The Church should be the one place in our culture where mistakes are not only expected but also welcomed."

All night Jacob strove with God in agony
He was determined, he was fighting past his fears
For a blessing from the God He knew could give it all His life was spared instead he was given peace him peace
He saw Your face, He said...
Not Mine, not my will, my will but only Yours
Not I, not my will, my will but only Yours
It was all night you sought your Father in this tragedy
And in anguish you were you were seeking Him with tears
Yet you would take my place and offer as a sacrifice
Your life for mine, you died to set me free
By your word you prayed this prayer for me

Would I shrink from One so glorious?
The God who knows my very soul?
In the quiet and the still Your words provoke me
That in the times I find myself in dire need
Or just the day to day deliverance of what You ask of me
My heart's desire from You is to be Yours
To follow, even run, to what You'd have me do

Lay It On The Altar ~ (Gen. 22:9, Rom. 12:1)

Anne with Kandi Mulligan
Anne MacCallum: vocals
Kenny McWilliams: bass
Don Russo: acoustic guitar
Gary Davis: piano
Jarred Hanning: violin
Josh Kean: drums, percussion

I lay it on the altar, try not to pick up again
All I can offer, is My heart, my will to give All to You, all I hold dear, all I want, or ever dream of All to You, all I hold dear, all I want, all I dream of I lay it on the altar, I lay it on the altar
Try not to pick up again
Every hour and, every moment I live

What lies between You and me is my sea of wants and misbeliefs
But I want Your cross to bridge the way and lay myself upon it

Shine

Behind the moon is where Love lives

It's what I always believed
On those nights when I'd see it Shine.. and I... felt special

Inside my room love still visits
In my windows with His light
He's made sure I always see it Shine... so I'd... feel special

As if the moon was there for me
Lighting my darkness
No matter where the night had gone
The Light would come

And shine, shine, shine
Shine, shine, shine on me

Inside the moon is a message
At least for me
Love will always be with me
So I... feel I... can believe

As if the moon was just for me
Lighting my darkness
No matter how the day had gone
I can come...

And shine, shine, shine
Shine, shine, shine on me
And shine, shine, shine on me
Shine, shine, shine, shine on me

Behind the moon is where Love lives
It's what I always believed
On those nights I bask in it
I shine... and I am... special
Shine... shine... shine
And I shine... as I fall asleep

Could it be that we don't understand Your power Could it be that we don't understand just what You did When You died for the sins that we we still come under Could it be we see imaginary giants

And we've believed the power of experience
Over truth that You are God the God that wants to free us Could it be? Could it be?
Come let us reason together
Could it be that we are fearing what we do not understand
Could it be You wait for us to turn and stand by faith
And trust Your love Your loving hand to save us

You came that we'd live free, live beyond just what we see
You know just where we are, come Spirit meet us teach our hearts

Is there a heart o'er bound by sorrow,
Is there a life weighed down by care
Come to the cross each burden bearing
All your anxiety leave it there
All your anxiety all your care
Come to the mercy seat leave it there Never a burden He cannot bear
Never a friend like Jesus
No other friend so keen to help you
No other friend so quick to hear
No other place to leave your burden
No other one to hear your prayer

Come then at once delay no longer
Head His entreaty kind and sweet
You need not fear a disappointment
You shall find rest at the mercy seat

Your Name

(A prayer for healing written for Ben & Liza Spece)

Anne with Gary Davis and Adam Cullum

Anne MacCallum: vocals
Gary Davis: piano

Lord, I call upon Your name, and into the heavenly realms
I stand before Your glory (I call upon Your glory)
And I am humbled, cause I know that every power
And every principality will listen and obey and they will bow their knee
Before Your glory, before Your power
Before Your holiness and honor
Bow in Your presence, before Your Name
Before Your throne, Jesus...

I am sealed with the blood of the Lamb

Love is patient, Love is kind, it does not envy, it does not boast,
It is not proud, it is not rude, it is not self seeking,
It is not easily angered, keeps no record of wrongs.
Love never fails
Love does not delight in what is evil but rejoices with the truth
(You are Love)

It always protects, always trust, always hope and always perseveres

Strengthen The Hands ~ (Is. 3:3-4)

(Inspired by a message from "Suupa" Dave Andes)

Anne with Jodi Eish

Anne MacCallum: vocals

We all come to His well for drink, we thirst the same it's what I think
We thirst God, we thirst for love, some admit it, some may not
We want the safety of a place where we are free to feel
His grace
See truth, and love and what is more, understand who we thirst for
For we are His and like He does, encourage one another Strengthen the hands, come along side, build up the body
As long as it is called today, we'll drink of Him in every way Recognize we're all the same, we thirst for God it's why we came
We're called to be encouraging encourage one another

Be strong, do not fear, your God will come, and once for all

Stephen Humphries

My heart is igniting a good matter

And I will speak of things I've made touching the King

My tongue is the pen of a ready writer

Your grace poured upon lips therefore I am blessed forever

I will be still, and know You are God, You are God

My heart and my soul trusts forever for You are my goodness

And my life is extended

The lines fall for me in pleasant places for in You is my blessing

In You my heritage I will be still, and know

You are God, You are God, Your peace, Your rest

You have known me, peace leave with me

You always give me Your best, I will write of Your blessing

And I will be still and know, You are God You are God.

Amen.
